OTHER SEARCH TIPS

You are welcome to tell librarians what materials you need. They will retrieve them, sign them out in your name, and bag them for pickup.

If you ask a librarian to choose books for you, be sure to state whether your learner is ESL (foreign-born individual learning to speak English) or ABE (Adult Basic Education), an individual learning to read.

Most Math books and ESL (English as a Second Language) books are not assigned a Difficulty Level (Reading Level). Teacher Guides and other Tutor materials are not assigned Difficulty/Reading Levels.

For ABE and ESL learners, use the term write in the Keywords field to search for books on writing and composition.

For ABE learners, search on the term TABE in the Keywords field, reading skills in the Subjects field, basic in the Keywords field, comprehension in the Subjects field, vocabulary in the Titles field.

ESL, English as a Second Language

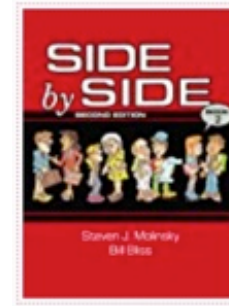

If you are teaching English to foreign students, use the term esl in the Keywords field to find books. Search on the term speaking in the Keywords field, conversation in the Keywords or Subjects fields, pronunciation in the Keyword or Subjects fields, citizenship in the Subjects or Keywords fields.

ABE tutors may find these book series useful in teaching learners to read: Achieving TABE Success in Reading (E=Easy, M=Medium, D=Difficult, A=Advanced), Challenger, Essentials of Reading, Journey to Success*, Reading Basics, Talk of the Block, Voyager. Search for these on the Titles field.

Some titles for ESL tutors: Apple Pie, English for Everyday Activities, English No Problem! Future, LifePrints, Side by Side, StandOut. Search on the Titles field.
