

FREE

Life Skills Workshop

VISITING THE DOCTOR Workshop Navigating the Medical World

Wed., June 12 • 5:30pm-7:00pm

Literacy Rochester, 1600 South Avenue, Rochester, NY 14620
- Student Learning Center - Zoom Participation also offered -

Key Topics Covered

- When do you call your doctor rather than 911?
- How to talk to your doctor
- Understanding medicine labels and prescriptions

Guest Presenter: Nancy Pecora

Volunteer teacher at Literacy Rochester, retired nurse with a Bachelor of Science in Nursing and Certified Care Manager.

Event Description

We will be practicing the basic steps involved with visiting the doctor's office

Attendance Requirements

Limited to 20 in-person participants, Zoom unlimited.
Students will be emailed link prior to workshop.

Life Skills Workshop for Adults. Register Now!
Ideal for English Language Learners, especially those learning English as a New language.

Questions: Audra Surman Instructional Coordinator
585.473.3030 | asurman@LiteracyRochester.org

Registration:

<https://literacyrochester.org/event/life-skills-workshop-visiting-the-doctor/>

www.LiteracyRochester.org

